'Visions of the Good Life: Salvation in the Twenty-First Century'

8-10 June 2022

Theological University Kampen, the Netherlands

A conference on salvation, on the 'good life', and on the motivation, content and form of Christian practices inside and outside the Church. From a practical-theological, missiological, and church-polity perspective. Organized by the Centre for Church and Mission in the West (CCMW).

Of specific interest to academics, students, pastors, church planters, and anyone else who want to deepen their thoughts on salvation in the twenty-first century.

A programme full of thought provoking lectures, seminars and short paper sessions. Drinks, lunches and dinners included, as well as a both interesting and entertaining outdoor activity.

More information and enrolment: www.churchandmission.nl

Regular price: € 135. For students: € 65.
